Kombucha

Booch, Please

Touted as a healing elixir ever since it was first brewed in Manchuria 2,200 years ago, this fermented, effervescent tea is all the rage. Not only does kombucha contain probiotics that aid the digestive system, it comes in delicious flavors all over town.

▲ Juneshine

This growing line of hard kombucha has a tropical tasting room in North Park and a larger facility in Scripps Ranch. They serve fun flavors like blood orange mint, and there's usually a nonalcoholic 'booch on tap too.

Barrel Republic

At this pour-your-own watering hole in Carlsbad, Oceanside, and Pacific Beach, imbibers get wristbands and can sample craft beers and different flavors of kombucha, like Red Basil or Amazon Acai.

Better Buzz Coffee

If you've had enough caffeine, opt for kombuchas on tap, like lavender lemonade, paired with avocado toast or an acai bowl, available at Better Buzz locations in Encinitas, Fashion Valley, Hillcrest, La Jolla, Mission Beach, Pacific Beach, and Point Loma.

▲ Boochcraft

The local brand pours their boozy 'booch at restaurants like OB Surf Lodge, Café Gratitude and Bankers Hill Bar + Restaurant.

Breakfast Republic

This kitschy breakfast chain (think egg chairs and indoor Airstream trailers) is known for s'mores French toast and Oreos pancakes, but its Ocean Beach location also sports 10 kombucha flavors on tap.

TapShack

We love this fun, backyard-like tasting room in Ocean Beach for a glass of strawberry jalapeño or lavender lemon 'booch.
